You can always request confession before or after any weekday Mass.

“The first step we must take to build the Kingdom of God on earth is to rediscover and appreciate the importance of the sacrament of confession, which will allow us to appreciate the sacrament of the Eucharist. We cannot appreciate the Eucharist while removing the sacrament of Confession from our spiritual life”.

40 HOURS DEVOTION AT ST EDWARD'S

21st/22nd JUNE 2025

On the Friday and Saturday before Corpus Christi Sunday, our parish will be holding a 40 Hours Devotion as a part of the Jubilee Year Celebrations. We still have a lot of time to prepare our parish for this event, but I wanted to give you a glimpse of what is planned for the weekend of 21st/22nd June.

What I would like you to do in the coming weeks is to look at the schedule at the end of the online newsletter and to let me know if you and your community can accept my invitation to support our prayer initiative. Any ideas for your particular time slot would be welcome. For instance, you could lead: the Rosary, the Divine Mercy Chaplet, the Stations of the Cross, you can play and sing Eucharistic hymns, read and meditate on the Scriptures. You should also make time for silent prayer. The most important thing is to adore God present among us in the mystery of the Eucharist, and that is why the Blessed Sacrament is never left alone during those forty hours. - Fr Gregory

What is the 40 Hours Devotion? The Forty Hours devotion is a special form of solemn exposition of the Most Holy Sacrament for about forty hours, during which continuous prayer is offered in adoration before the Eucharistic Jesus.

Why forty hours? According to St Augustine of Hippo, forty hours was the time Jesus spent in the Holy Sepulchre from burial on Good Friday to his resurrection on Easter day.

Symbolism of the number 40 in the Bible: The number 40 in the Bible represents a period of purification and atonement (reparation), of tribulation and spiritual trial, of penance and fasting, with the purpose of leading the faithful to repentance of one's sins and so to a renewed conversion to God:

- the Great Flood lasted forty days and forty nights (Genesis 7:12)
- Moses spent forty days on Mount Sinai waiting to receive the Law (Exodus 24:18);
- the journey in the desert of the prophet Elijah (1 Kings 19:8)
- the period of penance in the city of Nineveh lasted forty days (Jonah 3);
- the journey in the desert of the Jews lasted forty years;
- the period of fasting of Our Lord Jesus, after the Baptism, lasted forty days and nights (Matthew 4:2);
- the appearance of Christ to his disciples occurred for forty days after the resurrection (Acts 1:3).

A bit of history: There is uncertainty on how the devotion originated, possibly around the XII century in Dalmatia. However, the Forty Hours' devotion as it is known today began in Italy during the XVI century as a penitential period in preparation for the Paschal Triduum. In those times when there was great turmoil, instability and war in Europe, priests started exposing the Blessed Sacrament during the forty hours, beseeching the Lord especially for peace in the world. It was also used to draw people away from profane customs and, in fact, it spread as reparation to atone for the sins committed during "Carnevale" (carnival), but also as a remedy for the Reformation. Some of the people who started, developed and promoted the devotion were diocesan priests, others belonged to orders like the Barnabites, the Capuchins and the Jesuits. The Forty Hours' devotion is the origin of Perpetual Adoration.

Saints associated with the development of the Forty Hours: Saint Anthony Zaccaria, Saint Charles Borromeo, Saint Philip Neri, Saint Ignatius Loyola, Saint Alphonsus Liguori.

A Mass for Marriages

St Edward's, Thursday, 13th February at 7 pm

>> If you live in marriage, and would like to thank God for your wife or husband and pray with him or her that your love will grow, develop and will be strengthened by God's grace.

>> Or if you are experiencing any difficulties in your marriage.

We invite you to our evening Mass on Thursday, 13th February at 7 pm. After Mass there will be an opportunity to speak with Rose & Nigel who coordinate courses in the diocese which enable marriage discernment and enrichment, and also help stressful relationships. They will share with you their experience and knowledge and point you to the relevant confidential online resources which you might find helpful.

Everyone is invited to take part, not just those who are married, because marriage and family life, as the place where we learn to love and support others in spite of our differences, is the basic building block for stability in society - and as such holds deep significance for everyone.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SVP TEAM OF KETTERING, THRAPSTON, RAUNDS AND OUNDLE

On behalf of the local SVP team of volunteers, we would like to wish you all a Happy New Year! We would also like to express our sincere gratitude and thanks for your most generous donations to the SVP via our various fundraising efforts such as the recent second collections and foreign coin collections. The money raised will enable our Conference to provide much needed financial and practical support to our local beneficiaries in the new year. Our Conference has had another very busy year, where we have continued to visit and support our beneficiaries in their homes and in care homes as well as responding to dozens of new requests for help and support for families in need. Our Christmas present appeal created an amazing response, and our team was able to deliver Christmas presents to around 40 families and more than 80 children in our community. It is with your kind support and generosity that our conference is able to support those who are in need within our local parishes.

On behalf of all the team of volunteers we thank you again and wish you a peaceful and joyful New Year.

God bless, Joe Gasan,

SVP Conference President, (Thrapston, Oundle, Raunds and Kettering)

BEREAVEMENT MASSES

At St Edward's Catholic Church

They are not the ones who are dead, we are the ones who die, they are the ones who live eternal life.

We all know that bereavement might be a painful and emotional time for those who lost their loved ones. Perhaps you yourself are experiencing this or somebody you know is. Please consider joining us. Pain and sadness caused by death is not as difficult if you can share it with others who are in a similar situation.

From our Christian point of view, faith in God gives us a great comfort. However, no matter how strong your faith is, whether you are Christian or not, whether you believe in God or not, you are very welcome to come and join our group, listen to others or share your own experience. Each Mass will be followed by refreshments and friendly conversation in the Parish Hall. If you would like to, you can bring with you a funeral booklet or a photo of your loved one and display it in front of the altar. These are the dates for our Masses:

Skills

Talents

Interests

Welcome!

Perhaps you are new to the parish, or have been coming to Mass each week for years, but not sure how to go about getting involved?

Our parish has many groups. All of them would welcome new members.

We have different gifts, according to the grace given to each of us.....
If it is to encourage, then give encouragement; if it is giving, then give generously; if it is to lead, do it diligently; if it is to show mercy, do it cheerfully. 13. Romans 12:6a, 8

Do you have a skill, talent or interest that with the right support and encouragement, you would feel able and willing to share with others in time.

Your voice matters

We are blessed with such a rich, diverse and vibrant catholic community in Kettering, that we want to ensure everyone feels they belong to St. Edwards, and a valued parishioner.

We would love to hear your ideas

If you are interested in getting involved in anything in the parish, please speak to Fr Gregory after mass, or contact him via email or telephone. He will do his best to point you in the right direction. Telephone: 01536 512497
