CONFESSIONS AT ST EDWARD'S

Confessions at St Edward's are on Saturdays after the Vigil Mass which is at 6.30 pm.

You can always request confession before or after any weekday Mass.

“The first step we must take to build the Kingdom of God on earth is to rediscover and appreciate the importance of the sacrament of confession, which will allow us to appreciate the sacrament of the Eucharist. We cannot appreciate the Eucharist while removing the sacrament of Confession from our spiritual life”.

- Fr Gregory

PLEASE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED

WHAT IS GOD'S WILL FOR ME?

Jesus gave His disciples a promise and a warning in readings this week: the arrival of the Spirit and the coming persecutions. The Spirit would testify about the Lord and empower them to spread the Good News. Yet, the result of evangelisation would cause hatred, excommunication and even martyrdom. While the opponents of the early Church acted out of ignorance, they could not stop a divinely powered movement.

Christianity was controversial and it can still cause scandal if its message and power are made manifest. In John 16, Jesus calmed the anxieties of His followers. Yes, He would leave them but, in His absence, He would send them the Spirit which would focus on sin, righteousness and judgment. Jesus defined sin as disbelief, rejection of the Son of Man. He pointed to righteousness, not as the acts of a faith-filled person, but on the will of God. Finally, He spoke of judgment; the forces of evil would be condemned. These three topics added together fit into an outlook that saw God acting towards the dawn of His Kingdom.

The week's readings finish with that famous promise that "whatever you may ask of the Father in My name, He will give it to you". Many people misinterpret this promise Jesus made in John 16:23. It doesn't mean that God will give them what they want, when they want it. Unfortunately, such a view reduces God into a force we can manipulate. This is hardly the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Read in context, Jesus promises intimacy and, along with such closeness, divine favour which depends upon the will of the Father. This last clause is the caveat, for it demands an answer to the question, "What is God's will for my life?" Do we seek His will or our own self-interest? If we seek what God wants, not what we want, the Lord promised He would speak to us clearly, for He prays to the Father on our behalf.

Ultimately, the question of God's will come down to a more fundamental question: do we love God more than ourselves? If we do, we will believe Jesus came from the Father and will enjoy the love of the Trinity. Is that worth far more than the "stuff" our humanly selfish hearts could ever desire? Maybe take just five minutes today and pray for God's will in your life.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR VICTIMS AND SURVIVORS - 7th May

SAFEGUARDING TRAINING - MESSAGE FOR PARISHIONERS

This will be an important step forward in our safeguarding practice. Vivien has now been trained in the LMS (Learning Management System). It's an easy to access online course that mainly consists of a series of videos. For now, it would be good if all volunteers have a look at the Level 1 leaflet at Home \(catholicsafeguarding.org.uk\). There will be a printed copy of the leaflet in all our church buildings. If you register, please use your usual email address and keep a note of the password you choose.

Initially, those asked to complete the mandatory training at Level 3 will be new volunteers who require a DBS check and also those volunteers who are at the point of renewing their DBS. Vivien, Bindu or Joe will contact you when you need to do it. For any volunteers uncomfortable about online training, alternative arrangements can be made.

FOUNDATION MASS FOR THE USAF

Every year a Foundation Mass is offered for the USAF. This year it falls on Sunday 12th May. You may already be aware that the United States Air Force had a base at Grafton Underwood during the World War II. Catholic airmen from the base would attend St Edward's Church.

Late last year, two historians, Paul Teal and Sam Coleman who are studying the history of RAF Grafton Underwood visited the Church to share their knowledge of local ties which were formed during the war. The 384th Bomb Group were there for the longest period and flew B17 bombers.

As well as other donated memorials left locally, two items were donated to St Edward's Church. These were a silver chalice donated by "Pop" Dolan (Intelligence Officer 384th) and a wooden carving of St. Christopher donated by American 384th veterans. One of our parishioners was present as an altar-server when the chalice was presented. What is interesting is that there is an engagement ring inside the chalice, which belonged to the Colonel's wife who had died the year before the chalice was presented. Most likely, this was done in memory of her.

Paul and Sam have kindly allowed us to show some of their photographs.
