There are occasional instances though, when there need to be two separate Intentions at a Mass. When this arises, I would be grateful for your understanding.

The next 2nd collection will be on the weekend of 14/15th September for Evangelii Gaudium Sunday.

CONFESSIONS AT ST EDWARD'S

Confessions at St Edward's are on Saturdays after the Vigil Mass which is at 6.30 pm.

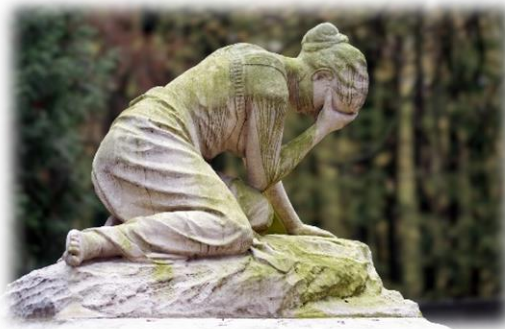

You can always request confession before or after any weekday Mass.

“The first step we must take to build the Kingdom of God on earth is to rediscover and appreciate the importance of the sacrament of confession, which will allow us to appreciate the sacrament of the Eucharist. We cannot appreciate the Eucharist while removing the sacrament of Confession from our spiritual life”.

- Fr Gregory

IS IT ALLOWED TO TALK IN CHURCH? IS IT APPROPRIATE OR INAPPROPRIATE?

From time to time, I am asked by our parishioners what I think about the fact that people talk in church before or after Mass. Do I see this a problem? Shouldn't conversations be forbidden in our catholic churches? What is my personal opinion on this matter? As always in such situations I try to find a passage from the Bible that would be relevant, and that would help us answer this quite challenging question. When I thought about it, the passage from the Gospel according to St Mark 12, 13-17 - where Jesus was asked about paying taxes - came to my mind. He was asked: Should we pay taxes to Caesar or not?

Today we know that this was a trick question, or rather a verbal trap set for Jesus. If Jesus had answered them: 'Yes, you should pay taxes', he would most certainly have been accused of cooperating with Caesar who was perceived by many Jews as a hostile occupier, and supporting him. If Jesus had advised them not to pay taxes, then they would have perceived him to be a rebel who disregarded authority, the law, and set a bad example for others.

I think it may be similar with our question about conversations in church. If we said categorically: Conversations in church are absolutely inappropriate under any pretext, they should be categorically forbidden, then both we and perhaps our parish as well could be accused of being insensitive, cold, indifferent to others, ignorant, not open to our neighbours, not welcoming, and so on. If we said: Conversations in church are appropriate, accepted and permitted, then others could say of us that we have lost the sense of being in a holy place, in the house of God, in the place of worship. There is no reverence for the Blessed Sacrament - people might say. Moreover, they might say: They disturb and distract others who have come here to pray in silence and concentration!

What does it mean to 'give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God' in the context of our question about conversations in church? I think that at this stage it is worth recalling some priorities that are very important in our reflection on what attitudes are appropriate in a place of worship and what are inappropriate:

- The Church is and should always be a special place, a holy place, where the most important person is God himself. This awareness is very important and crucial. So, when we enter the holy place, it is always worth kneeling before the tabernacle and being focused primarily on God and prayer. Conversations during Mass and Adoration are never appropriate, under any pretext.

- We should never make it difficult for others to pray and we should never distract those who have come here to meet God and present their daily affairs to him. Respect for others and being sensitive to others is another thing that should be very important and crucial for us, because this is the only way to 'give God what belongs to God' when we enter his holy place where He is present really, truly and substantially.

Now, let us ask what does it mean to 'give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar' in the context of our reflection on our attitudes in church, and specifically in the context of conversations in the place of worship?

- If you are in church, and before or after Mass you see someone who is sad, depressed, crying, or has just returned to church after a long break due to illness or hospitalisation, do not be indifferent, do not hesitate to approach and ask that person: How are you? How was your surgery? Are you coping well after the loss of your loved one? It is good to see you back! Please do not feel guilty if your conversation lasts a little longer especially if there is no chance to catch up in any other place, as long as you do not distract others. We are human beings, we are one family, and it is so important that every church is a place where we strengthen our bonds, build community, smile to each other, support each other, express our kindness and friendship.

- Please do not talk in church about your new car, house, the very exciting holiday you just came back from, the football or rugby match you just watched or an interesting film in the cinema. Don't talk about politics and politicians, about your favourite pets, dogs, cats, about your hobbies and adventures. Please do not talk about your son or daughter who you are very proud of, because they are making a career at university, or have been promoted at work. You can talk about these things - which might be very important and exciting to you - in many other places: at home, in a coffee shop, in the parish hall, on the phone, using social media, and in many other places where there is neither a tabernacle, nor the Blessed Sacrament, nor fellow parishioners who want to pray and worship God in silence, peace and without any distractions and noise.

I know from my own experience that sometimes it is difficult to find a balance between 'giving back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar' and 'giving to God what belongs to God', and no one will give us a clear answer whether it is appropriate to talk in church or not. Just as the world is not just black and white, our lives are not just black and white either. Nevertheless, I hope that you will find my reflection useful and helpful. I also pray and hope that our presence at: St Edward's, St Nicholas Owen, Holy Trinity and St Bernadette's will be respectful, pleasing to God, it will never distract others, but rather will help us fulfil the commandment of love for both - God and our neighbours as best we can.

- Fr Gregory

GOD'S BLESSINGS FOR SEMINARIAN RENVER

Time flies - for us in the presbytery time has really flown as we have enjoyed ourselves. Renver has brought a breath of fresh air into the parish house. I know all of you have seen him at many Masses. He has led the Rosary on the Feast of the Assumption, and the Youth Group on Friday. May God bless his formation as he leaves us on Wednesday and goes to Oscott Collage. Let us pray that his time in the Seminary will fly quickly again for him, and that in six years' time he will be sent by the bishop to one of the parishes in our diocese and will be a good and holy priest! Our Lady, please look after Renver, your son.

THINKING AHEAD ABOUT OUR PARISH YOUTH GROUP

Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.

As we are approaching autumn, I am thinking ahead about next year's Youth Group Sessions. I am very pleased how everything has gone this year. I know that many of our young people are delighted and excited. We started with 12 at the beginning of the year, but the number has grown and sometimes we have almost 30 young people attending. I don't have to convince anyone that this can only be a good thing when it comes to helping them grow in faith and develop their friendship with Jesus.

Now that we have started, I wouldn't want it to stop, and it wouldn't be possible without the help and dedication of volunteers. I was wondering if anyone would like to consider giving up their time just for one evening next year, and lead a session. I would like to encourage all our communities to think about it, including the Filipino and Indian communities. Please let me know personally if I could add you to the rota of volunteers for 2025, so that we can start the DBS process. We have all the facilities and even funds, we just need new volunteers with good ideas.

THE PARISH YOUTH GROUP

If you would like your son or daughter to take part in youth group activities, please email the parish office and request a registration form. The next meeting will be on Friday, 6th September at 6.30 pm.

BAPTISMAL PREPARATION

If you would like your child to be baptised, please contact Fr Gregory. Parents who would like their children to be baptised are invited to attend Baptismal Preparation on the first Monday of the month at 7 pm at St Edward's Church. The next meeting will be on Monday, 2nd September 2024.

COFFEE MORNINGS

The next Wednesday Coffee Morning in the parish hall, will be run by Rothwell Community after 10.00 am Mass on 4th September
On 2nd October - Soup Kitchen
on 6th November - Flower Arrangers and Readers

PLANNING YOUR WEDDING

If you are planning to get married abroad or at St Edward's Church, you must give us at least six months' notice. This is to ensure that all the preparation that couples are required to do, and the pre-marriage courses are completed along with the necessary paperwork. Please contact the parish office to get the relevant link to the course. You are always welcome to approach me after any Mass, so that you can begin making wedding plans.

Please remember that to be legally married in this country, both parties have to be over 18 years old. Depending on circumstances if you have been married before, you may still have the opportunity to be married in the Catholic Church, but this will depend on your personal situation. At least one party must be Catholic. Although you can be married wherever you wish, all the paperwork has to be done by your parish priest in the place where you live.

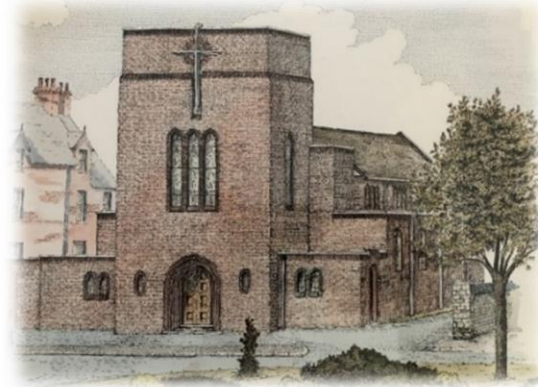

PARISH GROUPS AND ORGANISATIONS

Our parish is blessed with many groups. All of them would welcome new members. If you are interested in getting involved in anything in the parish, please speak to Fr Gregory. He will do his best to point you in the right direction. Maybe you have an idea to set up a new group, perhaps a group focused on prayer, or bereavement. Again, please share your thoughts with Fr Gregory. Pray, and make a firm decision if you have reached a time in your life when you can offer something to our community.

ST EDWARD'S CHURCH IS OPEN EVERY WEDNESDAY FOR PRIVATE PRAYER

The church remains open on each Wednesday after Mass until 1 pm. The list of volunteers who look after the church will remain open, and everyone is welcome to join and support the teams. If our current arrangement works well, and if we have more volunteers, we will expand the days and times when people can come and pray privately. Please take this opportunity to spend some time with the Lord.

MANDATORY SAFEGUARDING TRAINING FOR ALL VOLUNTEERS

As a Church we have a responsibility to ensure that all those who undertake work in the name of the Church are adequately trained in safeguarding matters. Nationally, there are new expectations that all volunteers complete safeguarding training every 3 years. As a diocese and parish, it is our role to adhere to this requirement. From 1st August all new volunteers will be expected to have completed the new safeguarding training PRIOR to their commencement in role. All existing volunteers will be expected to have completed the training before the point of their next DBS renewal. This is a mandatory requirement and non-negotiable, however, there are many benefits of increased understanding and confidence around safeguarding. Appropriate support and encouragement will be available through the parish and the diocesan safeguarding team to ensure we are meeting national expectations.

DIOCESAN NEWS

THE CATHOLIC DIOCESE OF NORTHAMPTON

Diocesan Mass for Marriage

The annual Mass for Marriage and Family Life will be celebrated by Bishop David on 7 September 2024 at Northampton Cathedral. Gathering will be from 11:30am followed by Mass at 12noon.

Bishop David will give his pastoral blessing to those couples celebrating significant milestones in their marriage i.e. 1, 10, 20, 25, 30, 40, 50, 60 years etc.

If this is a special anniversary year for you please contact Sam Canning (MFL Co-ordinator) via email mfl@northamptondiocese.org by 25 August 2024.

Everyone is very welcome to attend and there will be refreshments after Mass in the Cathedral Centre.

Course at St Thomas Centre

Bishop David will be presiding at a day event at the St Thomas Centre, Northampton to explore Church teachings on gender and how secular ideas of identity are impacting our families, parishes and schools. We are really excited to be hosting Dr Julia Sadusky (PsyD, Regent University) who is an author, speaker, and licensed psychologist. Julia specialises individual, family, and couples therapy in addition to consultations for individuals and families around sexuality and gender. She also serves as a ministry educator, offering trainings and consultations to counselling centres and faith-based institutions on sexuality, gender identity, mental health, trauma-informed care, and the intersection of sexuality, gender, and theology. Julia is visiting the UK for a short period of time where she will present to colleagues across the country. Her motivational speeches will not only inspire you but help us to understand the very complex society we live within while supporting us all on our journey to respect the dignity of every human being. We will also be welcoming Beccy Roseman, a member of the Archdiocese of Birmingham. Beccy, as part of her chaplaincy role, works with Kenelm Youth Trust, the Archdiocesan youth service. They have produced exciting resources for both primary and secondary pupils that address issues of mental health and wellbeing. These resources link beautifully with our Catholic faith and support our young people on a spiritual journey to wellness. The course will be held at the St Thomas Centre, Northampton on 7th October from 10am until 3pm. Lunch will be provided. This event is suitable for anyone interested in gender, particularly school leaders, RE teachers and leaders, Chaplains, catechists and family support workers. The cost of this Conference is £75 including lunch. Please book your place here: <https://northamptondioceseschools.org/courses/>

DEVOTIONS AT ST EDWARD'S

Attending Sunday Mass is something, which we as Catholics do, not only because it is our duty but because our souls gather strength thanks to the Sacrifice of Our Lord. Yet, there are many more occasions when we can come to church, when we can show our appreciation to God, when we can worship, praise and thank Him, when we can share our worries with Him. As well as times of quiet devotion, the church calendar in our parish gives us an opportunity for more organised prayer.

>>> The Angelus prayer we say after each Tuesday and Wednesday Mass.

>>> First Friday Adoration - on each first Friday of the month adoration starts at 6 pm and is concluded by the Litany to The Most Sacred Heart of Jesus and benediction.

>>> Weekday adoration - on Tuesdays 30 minutes before morning Mass and on Fridays 30 minutes before evening Mass.

>>> Lent Time - The Stations of the Cross are led by parishioners after Wednesday Masses at 10 am, and before Friday Masses, that is at 6.15 pm.

>>> Easter Time - we pray Divine Mercy Chaplet on Divine Mercy Sunday at 3 pm, and during the week following Divine Mercy Sunday after weekday Masses.

>>> May is the month of Our Blessed Mother.

We pray the Litany of Loreto after each weekday Mass.

>>> June is the month of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

We pray the Litany to the Heart of Jesus after each weekday Mass.

>>> July is the month of the Most Precious Blood of Jesus.

We pray the Litany to the Blood of Jesus after each weekday Mass.

>>> October is the month of the Holy Rosary.

We pray the Rosary 30 minutes before each weekday Mass.

>>> November is the month of all the faithful departed. We pray the Rosary or Divine Mercy Chaplet for those who have passed away, after each weekday Mass.
